

Seniors Fire Safety Presentation Booking Form

All Seniors Fire Safety presenters are volunteers who are committed to increasing individual and community safety. Travelling costs for presenters are reimbursed by FRV and no payment or gratuity is required or allowed. FRV will book interpreters if required. There will be no cost for this service. Presentations are only suitable for older people who live in their own homes. They are not suitable for people who live in residential care or people living with dementia. In some circumstances, presentations may be delivered to disability groups but only after consultation with and the approval of the program coordinator. At least one month's advance notice for bookings is required.
